TYPES OF CONTRACTS

types of contracts commons between young people

the main contracts used for young people are:

- seasonal contract: A seasonal contract is a special form of fixed-term contract subject to specific rules. A seasonal contract is not meant to cover a periodic increase in the normal activity of a business, but to cover specific tasks that are not performed throughout the rest of the year.
- part-time contract: is a form of employment that carries fewer hours per week than a full-time job. They work in shifts. The shifts are often rotational. Workers are considered to be part-time if they commonly work fewer than 30 hours per week
- work related learning contract: as used in higher education is a formal written agreement between a learner and a supervisor which details what is to be learnt, the resources and strategies available to assist in learning it
- on-call contract: a contract that is awarded with general provisions for the services to be rendered, as services are needed, specific task orders are initiated by City staff, to be completed by the vendor.

If you are looking for a job...

- you could surf the internet, checking specific work websites as ClicLavoro, or directly the companies sites;
- you have the possibility to apply (rivolgersi) to job centres/employment offices or to associations connected with the professional sphere;
- you can leave your data in particular companies in charge of selecting new staff

Special programmes to help people to get a job

- GARANZIA GIOVANI (= youth guarantee): for people between 15 - 29 years old with no job and that are not students;
- work services offered by the region: information about the work possibilities in the area and personal help and support;
- INFORMAGIOVANI (= informing young people) and L'ISOLA DEL LAVORO (= work island): both help young people getting the information they need and getting to know how to act
